

Chef de partie (60-100%)

Cantina, the sister restaurant of Barranco at Bullingerplatz, will open its doors in November 2022.

Our new ambitious restaurant, using Swiss seasonal products inspired by Peruvian cuisine, is located in the heart of Kreis 4 of Zurich.

We strive to offer a stimulating, creative and fun atmosphere, while working hard, with attention to detail, and with passion. Experience is important, but so is drive and eagerness to learn. Are you hard working, motivated, flexible and eager to contribute creatively? Are you excited about being part of a dynamic team opening a new restaurant? Then you might be the person we are looking for!

Your profile

- Training as a chef
- Work experience in a hotel, restaurant or similar
- High attention to detail and focus on quality
- A do'er with a flexible mindset and positive attitude
- Able to communicate and work well in a team in hectic situations
- Flexibility to working hours
- Conversational English required

Areas of responsibility

- Mise-en-Place and production of quality dishes
- Management and organization of your kitchen area
- Ensure optimal production and service
- Ordering, inspection and preparation of goods
- Cleaning following general hygiene guidelines

What we offer

- A friendly and familiar atmosphere in a diverse, international team
- A fun environment with a team that enjoys working together
- The opportunity to contribute creatively and gain knowledge and experience, working closely with head chef Jose Severino
- Opportunities for growth within the gastronomy group

We are at your disposal for any questions and look forward to receiving your application.

Hasta Pronto! Christina and the Cantina team - jobs@cantinazurich.ch

Front house staff (60-80%)

Cantina, the sister restaurant of Barranco at Bullingerplatz, will open its doors in November 2022.

We strive to offer a stimulating, creative and fun atmosphere, while working hard, with attention to detail, and with passion. Experience is important, but so is drive and eagerness to learn. Are you hard working, motivated, flexible and eager to contribute creatively? Are you excited about being part of a dynamic team opening a new restaurant? Then you might be the person we are looking for!

Your profile

- Training and/or work experience in the gastronomy industry
- Positive mindset and a can-do attitude
- Great communication skills with natural friendliness and charisma
- Flexible, guest oriented and organized
- Able to communicate and work well in a team in hectic situations

Areas of responsibility

- Caring for and giving professional yet friendly service to guests
- Advise guests in their food and drink selection
- Preparation of dining room
- Maintaining own service station and smooth service flow

What we offer

- A friendly and familiar atmosphere in a diverse, international team
- A fun environment with a team that enjoys working together
- Opportunities for growth within Barranco and our second location

We are at your disposal for any questions and look forward to receiving your application.

Hasta Pronto! Christina and the Cantina team - jobs@cantinazurich.ch